Rotary Members Fill in for the Sheriff This Week

David Keck, Editor of The Daily Press, admitted he sometimes refers to the newspaper as “The Daily Miracle”; because sometimes it gets published with a wing and a prayer! David gave some tips on getting items printed in the newspaper. Don’t forget to include:

- 1) Who
- 2) What
- 3) When
- 4) Where
- 5) Why

If you are able to get your submissions in three to four weeks in advance that is preferable; then follow up with a reminder a few days before the event to be sure it is going to be published. If you wish to email him directly, David’s email is: DKeck@vvdailypress.com, or contact Kris Reilly, City Editor, at kreilly@vvdailypress.com. If you would like to have a photograph printed in the paper, contact Fernando Torres, Photographer, ftorres@vvdailypress.com. Thanks for speaking to us on-the-fly, and fielding questions from the group, David!

Mark Sawyer, Executive Director of the Boys & Girls Club of The Victor Valley, was happy to expound on the programs that serve our children. They have joined with the Hesperia Recreation & Park District to provide Kids Kamp this summer at Lime Street Park in Hesperia.

The electric bill since installing the swamp coolers will save thousands of dollars this year, and Mark thanked Rotary for the donation. He also thanked Verizon, ServePro, and Top Notch Networking; the computer room is finished. Next Mark will be soliciting for computers. Mark says in the summer they average from 70-92 kids per day! Surprisingly (or maybe not), over 90% of them have no computers at home, but more than 90% of them have cell phones! He explained how much the staff does with the kids in tutoring, mentoring and utilizing the Boy’s and Girls Clubs’s most successful programs to teach social media, character and leadership. Great job, Mark!

Russ' Rap

President Russ reported on the officer shot in San Bernardino this morning, which precluded Sheriff John McMahon from addressing the Club. Our prayers are with the officer, his family, and all law enforcement officers. Thanks to David Keck of the Daily Press and Mark Sawyer of The Boys & Girls Club for stepping up on short notice to enlighten us on their respective businesses.

Teressa DeAtley introduced her son Zachary, who is heading off to Vanguard University! We also got to say hello to Nancy Noble, Paul Harris Community Fellow and Honorary member, and also Ron Hughes!

Jon Hove hopes all are signed up for "Movie Night" this Saturday. Sign-up sheet has been around, and there is a map on Page two. Don't forget your lawn chairs!

Russ reported that we have our first major Wine, Jazz & More Sponsor. It is Southwest Gas, and we hope many will follow their lead. This is our big fund raiser! Contact Ben Tafoya if you would like to become a Wine, Jazz & More Sponsor (forms are also available at meetings).

Margaret Cooker would like to remind members of the benefits of joining Russ' "President's Circle". You will be billed monthly for the amount you choose, and all of your donation will go directly to the projects you choose. And don't forget the August 24th Macy's "Charity Day". Proceeds to to our Foundation, so be sure and get your $5 ticket from Margaret!

Speaking of Margaret, we missed the opportunity to be updated on using the Club database. Hopefully Margaret will have another chance to show us just how easily we can make changes to our own information and have access to contact information for our fellow Rotarians!
