First District Supervisor: Behind the Scenes

Mike Page introduced our own Robert Lovingood to fill us in on what happens behind the scenes at the San Bernardino County Supervisors' offices.

Daily Press

Rotarian Steve Hunt wrote a great article on the presentation which was published on Wednesday – much better than this reporter's notes!! Just a couple of gleanings: we were filled in on the National Monument status meetings that effected a change favorable to S.B. County; and on the Wednesday meeting regarding the 27 windmills proposed for the valley. Robert's key role is to interact with constituants and react to the Valley's needs. Regarding Sacramento and Washington - the main focus is on the high desert's shortage of Trade school opportunities and graduates to supply our needs. We were warned that the process takes time to get in place but is being pursued vigorously. Some great questions followed the presentation. Many thanks to Mike Page for arranging Robert to speak.

Thank you to today's Functionaries

Title (DeAtley) plus Manny Manahan for Rick Hampton and Holly Noel for Eldon Heaston.

Ryan McEachron returned as fine-master today with $25 as THE figure—but still missed Bob Basen & his new vehicle! He did want to fine Terry Caldwell for his time in France-but gave him fine-master privilege! Ryan skipped his own table but zapped Sam Lucia for “you know why”. Stew was hit for using “outstanding” in praise of retirement. Dan Dever was taxed as proxy for Chuck Utgard, and Robert Lovingood the same for “being here”!! Paula Porter suffered for introducing Janice Olson but Steve Hunt was only hit with $10 for not bringing the new Publisher.

THE SPOON OF EXEMPTION was bought for $100 by Teressa DeAtley, Citizen's Business Bank with Dwight & Rosanne in contention.

Candidates for President 2017-2018 are sought

DVH donated 2 “stuffed” mugs won by Gary Adams & Paula Porter. Gary was on a hot streak today and also won 2 tickets to the Ontario Range donated by PrintMart, plus 2 tickets to “Dead Man Walking” from El Dorado; Dwight also donated 2 tickets to the Home & Garden Show won by Rosanne Weathers & lunch for 2 won by Terry Caldwell; McKay's hand sanitizers were taken by Janice Olsen; and McKay's notepad went home with Marilyn Buttelerwerth

SPOON of Exemption

Steve Orr used his last opportunity to shamelessly advertise by telling how HERITAGE MEDICAL GROUP gives back to the community. This time regarding the ice rink at the Fairgrounds where, on December 24, Heritage will offer 500 FREE admission tickets through El Dorado Broadcasting and Heritage office – stay tuned for details.

Sgt. Ken Lutz received a cheque for $1,000 from the Victorville Rotary Foundation for this worthwhile program that we have been supporting most years since Teresa introduced us to it in her year as President. Ken told us some of the success stories that have resulted from taking 50 troubled young people into the program and, in addition to boxing skills, teaching them citizenship, leadership, and community service. One young lady is now a effective Deputy with the station.

The group recently worked on a senior citizen's home and surrounds – repainting the house, fixing the A/C and the car. Coach Gonzales heads the program and ALL the time is donated by the leaders and facilitators.

THE GLOVES WERE OFF!!

1st District Supervisor Robert Lovingood is recognized by Assistant Governor, and stand-in for President Steve Murray, Russ Stringham for speaking to us by a book that is donated to the Victorville City Library.

Striving To Achieve Results
